

HORSLEY WITTEN GROUP, INC.

Job Opening – Licensed Site Professional

HW currently has an opening for a Licensed Site Professional to support our ongoing engineering and restoration projects that involve site assessment and remediation. The successful candidate will be a Licensed Site Professional (LSP) in Massachusetts and will have a minimum 8-10 years of experience with LSP related work. The successful candidate will be responsible for managing site assessment and remediation projects and also supporting other engineering design, permitting and restoration projects conducted by the firm. Given the variety of projects our firm conducts, a candidate also registered as a Professional Engineer is preferred.

The Horsley Witten Group, Inc. (HW) is a full-service environmental science and engineering firm with offices located in Sandwich and Boston Massachusetts, Providence, Rhode Island and Exeter. The position can be located in our Sandwich, Boston or Providence offices. Our team utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to its work combining engineering and science with land use planning, economics, and public policy. Our corporate goal is to create innovative solutions to environmental problems by successfully integrating engineering, science, and planning skills.
